Forest Management Application FA - 002265
Application to amend Timber Cutting Permit TP-002256
Gus Pasowisty o/a G&G Wood Products
Near Fort Resolution

G&G Wood Products (Gus Pasowisty) of Fort Resolution has applied to amend Timber Cutting Permit TP002256 to increase the level of harvest to 5000 cubic metres of spruce saw logs and to add new harvest areas from areas along the Fort Resolution Highway near Fort Resolution.

The activity will be occurring in Akaitcho First Nations Traditional Territory and the activity may require a land use permit. The activity is subject to preliminary screening pursuant to the Mackenzie Valley Resource Management Act.

The Department of Resources, Wildlife and Economic Development has requested review and comment from cooperative agencies and affected First Nations on the application in accordance with the Department's commitments to consultation on forest development activities under interim measures agreements, requirements set in legislation under the Forest Management Act and Regulations of the NWT, and requirements set out in legislation under the Mackenzie Valley Resource Management Act.

The Department has set the deadline for comments to be November 23, 2004. Subsequently, the Department will review comments and input, and its own environmental assessments and make a decision on whether to approve the amendment or refuse to approve the amendment. It is our intent to undertake this follow-up action by November 26, 2004.

Should you have comments or concerns with this process, we invite you to advise the undersigned by telephone, letter, facsimile, or contact the Department at Forest_Management@gov.nt.ca.

Thank you for attention and cooperation.

Forest Management Application FA - 002265
Application to amend Timber Cutting Permit TP-002256
Gus Pasowisty o/a G&G Wood Products
Near Fort Resolution

G&G Wood Products (Gus Pasowisty) of Fort Resolution has applied to amend Timber Cutting Permit TP002256 to increase the level of harvest to 5000 cubic metres of spruce saw logs and to add new harvest areas from areas along the Fort Resolution Highway near Fort Resolution.

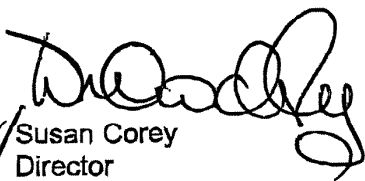

The Department has completed its preliminary screening of the above application under the provisions of the Forest Management Regulations, and in accordance with the requirements of the Mackenzie Valley Resource Management Act. The Department has determined through consultation efforts and its own environmental reviews that there are no First Nation concerns for the area of the application, nor are there significant environmental concerns with respect to the proposed development.

Accordingly, the Department intends to approve amending the authorized harvest volume under Timber Cutting Permit TP002256 from 800 to 5000 cubic metres of white spruce sawtimber, on or after November 30, 2004.

Should you wish to discuss this further, I invite you to contact myself at (867) 872-7700 or Mr. Lloyd Jones, Superintendent, South Slave Region, at (867) 872-6400.

Thank you for attention and cooperation.
