In addition to not accepting an appeal , the Board did not discuss or rule on my objections to the proposed conditions of the permit. These were made by staff and working group and the Board did not consider the issues..then I am told to take it to court if I do not agree.

Dear Mr. Jaeb:

MV2013J0006 – True North Safaris Ltd. – Type A Land Use Permit

In response to your email dated October 17, 2013, the decision of the Board is final – see section 67 of the Mackenzie Valley Resource Management Act (MVRMA). Section 32(1) of the MVRMA describes the appeal process; specifically it describes which court has jurisdiction to hear appeals relating to Board decisions.

The Board has provided reasons for decision and responded to follow up questions. This is my final response on this issue.

Sincerely,

Willard Hagen
Chair
