1. The corporation may have a corporate seal or seals, which shall be such as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

FINANCIAL YEAR

2. The financial year of the corporation shall terminate on such date in each year as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

DIRECTORS

- 3. Calling of Meetings. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held from time to time and at such place as the board of directors, chairman of the board, the managing director, the president, or any director may determine.
- 4. Notice of Meeting. Notice of a meeting of the board of directors shall be sufficiently given if not less than 24 hours before the time when the meeting is to be held, the notice is delivered personally to the person to whom it is to be given or if delivered to the person's latest address as recorded in the records of the corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "record address"), or if mailed to the person's recorded address or if sent to the person's recorded address by any means of prepaid transmitted or recorded communication; provided that meetings of the board of directors may be held without formal notice if all the directors are present and do not object to formal notice not having been given or those absent waive notice in any manner before or after the meeting.
- 5. Meetings by Telephone. If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board of the directors or of a committee of the board of directors by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting. Any such consent shall be effective whether given before or after the meeting to which it relates and may be given with respect to all meetings of the board of directors and of committees of the board of directors held while a director holds office.

Certified to be a true copy of by-law no.1 of 139675 Canada Ltd. enacted by the board of directors of the corporation on February 28, 1985, which remained and still is in full force and effect this 29th day of October, 1987.

- 6. First Meeting of New Board of Directors. Provided a quorum of directors is present, each newly elected board of directors may without notice hold its first meeting immediately following the meeting of shareholders at which such board of directors is elected.
- 7. Chairman. The chairman of any meeting of the board of directors shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is a director and is present at the meeting: chairman of the board, managing director, president, or a vice-president who is a director. If no such officer is present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- 8. Quorum and Voting. At all meetings of the board of directors, two of the directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, and every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes on the question. In case of any equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

OFFICERS

9. The board of directors may from time to time appoint a chairman of the board, a managing director, a president, one or more vice-presidents (before or after which title may be added words indicating seniority or function), a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers as the board of directors may determine, including one or more assistants to any of the officers so appointed.

The board of directors may specify the duties of and, subject to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act, as from time to time amended, or any statute that may be substituted therefore, delegate to such officers powers to manage the business and affairs of the corporation.

PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHERS

10. Subject to the limitations contained in the Canada Business Corporations Act as from time to time amended, or any statute that may be substituted therefor, the corporation shall indemnify a director or officer, a former director or officer, or a person who acts or acted at the corporation's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the corporation is or was a shareholder or creditor, and his heirs and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by him in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the corporation or such body corporate, if:

- (a) he acted honestly and in good faith, with a view to the best interests of the corporation; and
- (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he had reasonable grounds for believing that his conduct was lawful.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

- 11. Chairman. The chairman of any meeting of shareholders shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is present at the meeting: chairman of the board, managing director, president or a vice-president. If no such officer is present at the meeting, the persons present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- 12. Voting. At any meeting of shareholders every question shall, unless otherwise required by law, be deterined by the majority of the votes cast on the matter. Unless a ballot is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or not carried, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact.

SHARES

- 13. Share Certificates. Share certificates and acknowledgements of a shareholder's right to a share certificate, respectively, shall be in such form as the board of directors shall from time to time approve. Any share certificate shall be signed in the manner determined by the board of directors from time to time and need not be under the corporate seal.
- 14. Surrender of Share Certificates. No transfer of a share certificate shall be recorded or registered unless or until the certificate representing the shares to be transferred has been surrendered and cancelled.

APPOINTMENT OF AGENTS AND ATTORNEYS AND EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

15. The board of directors may from time to time determine the directors, officers or other persons by whom any particular document or instrument or class of documents or instruments of the corporation may be signed on behalf of the corporation and the manner of signing thereof, including the use of facsimile reproductions of any or all signatures and the use of the corporate seal or a facsimile reproduction thereof.

ENACTED by the board of directors on February 28, 1985. RATIFIED by the shareholder, pursuant to section 98(2) of the C.B.C.A., on March 19, 1986.
