Good morning Erica,
happy new year to you too.
I checked this morning for comments and there is nothing there except the one recommendation from the inspectors.
So I guess the package is good to go for the board meeting.
Thanks and take care,
Werner

Hi Werner,

Happy New Year!

This is a reminder that the comment deadline for South Nahanni Outfitters' permit extension request is today; no comments are posted yet, but comments may be posted until this evening. I would encourage you to check the review page first thing tomorrow morning. If no comments end up being posted, no need to respond, but in that case if you could just send me a quick note to confirm that you won't be responding, that would be helpful.

I will check the page tomorrow morning as well, and will be walking this package into a Board meeting next week.

Please get in touch with any questions.

Erica
