| | | | | | | Thanks for responding. Yes, Slave Lake Zinc has every intention of consulting with Fort Resolution. I believe that they have consulted with the community and First Nation in the past and look forward to continuing to work together. I have every hope that the situation with COVID continues to improve and that we will be able to engage in person in the upcoming months. Thanks again and I look forward to meeting you. |

I originally sent out a notification for stakeholders as a heads up that the company would be applying for an amendment to the LUP and applying for a Water License. This occurred on May 8. I followed up on May 11 with a draft application as well as the plain language summary. See |
