Subject: RE: Land Inspector Notification - Northwest (Formerly Akaitcho) Pump Project

Hey Devin,

Hope all is well. I see that Tim is out of the office today.

Was trying to give him the information below regarding the Northwest pump pulling task which is scheduled to happen most likely Wednesday.

SSP requires 48hr notification. Did you want to have a chat about this or is it alright for us to wait until Tim comes back. I will send Tim the notification anyways today and cc you.

Subject: Land Inspector Notification - Northwest (Formerly Akaitcho) Pump Project

Good Morning Tim,

Was hoping to be able to speak with you sometime today in regards to some upcoming work in pulling the Northwest Pump out of the ground to investigate why this pump is not working.

The sub-contractor who is going to complete this pump pull is supposed to be mobilizing to site over the next few days. Would you like to have a chat about this prior to providing approvals?

Please advise.
