Good afternoon,

I just wanted to update all on our operations in Cameron Hills.

We have had an illness outbreak over the last 48hrs that has hit nearly all personnel on location. All seem to be on the mend now.

Due to the above seasonal temperatures forecast for the next few days, and the previously mentioned illness, we have chosen to stop road operations until Thursday Feb. 1st, so not to damage the progress we have already constructed.

We are planning to have a rig move onto location at M-31 on Thursday Feb. 1, with operations commencing the next day.

As of now, I am tentatively scheduling a field trip to Cameron Hills next week, with on site days potentially being T/W/Th.

With the weather shutdown and lack of activity this week, we are proposing that we cancel this Friday's weekly call in. Also, because neither Christopher Gagnon or myself will be available as scheduled.

Please, let me know if that is acceptable to all, and we will recommence with regular weekly meetings next week.

Thank you,

Chris
